Dear Clients:

Happy New Year!

Enclosed is your 2019 organizer. We encourage you to complete and return the organizer to our office with all of your 2019 tax return information. Even if you do not complete the organizer, please sign the attached engagement letter and include the organizer with your tax data when you bring it in to the office, as we use it to prepare and process your tax returns.

Please review addresses and phone numbers and update as necessary. Please be sure your birth dates and the birth dates of your children are correct. If a child was born during 2019, be sure to provide their full name, date of birth, and social security number.

In order to prepare your returns this year, we are required to obtain all of your Forms W-2; Forms 1099 from retirement, interest, dividends, and brokers; bank Forms 1098; and any other official IRS documents.

Taxpayers will continue to receive Forms 1095-A, B and C, which pertain to health insurance coverage. In order to complete your 2019 return, we must have all copies of any and all Form 1095-A, B or C received. These forms provide us with the necessary information to report your health insurance coverage and calculate any credit. While the federal penalty for not having health insurance was repealed, some states have their own penalty for not having insurance. We also draw your attention to “Questions (Pages 1-2 of 5)” of the organizer. Please answer all the questions related to healthcare at the bottom of “Questions (Page 1 of 5)” and top of “Questions (Page 2 of 5).”

The ability to itemize deductions has been dramatically decreased because the new law provides a much larger standard deduction. However, we still need to accumulate the information on your medical, tax, mortgage interest, charity, and other deductions in order to apply the new rules, and to complete your state tax returns.

It will be important to bring copies of all correspondence from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) or the Oregon Department of Revenue (ODR). We also recommend that you review your estate planning and wills with your tax professional and/or attorney.

If you are considering retirement, starting a small business, selling an investment or business, we strongly suggest you contact us for a planning meeting for these items, as well as for any of the ideas discussed in the enclosed Tax Planning Tips & Ideas.

We look forward to serving your 2019 tax return needs and want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work for you. If you have any questions or would like to set up an appointment to see us, please contact our office at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

Debra L. Blasquez, CPA

Tax Planning Tips & Ideas

In the last two years, we have seen many individual tax changes that may have reduced some deductions, increased others, and dramatically changed your tax return. There are still a number of tax planning tools available and in this letter, we will remind you of a few.

Immediate AND long-lasting planning tips:

- If your employer offers a 401(k) plan, America's #1 tax shelter continues to be deferring the maximum amount the IRS allows to your 401(k) this and every year. Because employers are required by law to match a portion of your own deferral, this is a tax deduction with free money!
- The Kaiser Family Foundation reports this year that 41% of American W-2 employees will be covered by a health savings account at work. If your employer does not deposit the maximum amount allowable into this plan, you have until April 15, 2020 to add the remaining amount (up to the 2019 maximum) to this, the 2nd best tax planning move of all time.
 - Some employers allow you to deposit your health savings account amounts through a cafeteria or 125 plan. If available to you, this is the best way to put your own money in because of the additional tax savings available by avoiding Social Security tax. You are probably too late to do much for this year but make this your 2020 New Year's resolution.
- Fewer Americans are now able to itemize deductions because of the huge benefit received from the increased standard deduction. That doesn't mean that you still can't do anything though. One simple tool to get the best "bang for your buck" would be to practice what we call bunching of charitable contributions. This trick guides you to make charitable contributions every other year so that you double up and get a deduction in some years without giving it up in others. Simply make your 2020 contributions as early as possible in 2020, and then make your 2021 contributions at the very end of 2020 so that you "bunch" all your amounts in one year to potentially get the best itemized deduction amount.
- Because there is no longer any deduction for work-related expenses, you must carefully read your employer's handbook to see if they offer a reimbursement program for job-related expenses like licenses, dues, uniforms, supplies, etc.
- If you are considering selling some old stock investments, you might want to consider giving them directly to charity and avoiding writing checks to charity because you are able to deduct the full fair market value of the stock you give away in most cases.
- While we are at it, if you are over 70½ and have an IRA, you should not be writing checks to charity; instead, you should be using the "Direct IRA to charity" tool to avoid tax issues while qualifying for the required distribution rule.

- One of our annual overall planning tools is to advise “debt free at 65.” This lifelong goal is a basic element of financial and tax planning that is constantly overlooked in today’s era of 30-year mortgages and cheap refinancing options. With the greatly reduced itemized deduction availability of home mortgages, it is more powerful than ever!
- We continue to worry about unreported foreign investments and we suggest you very carefully consider whether you have control over a foreign checking account or hold stock outside the United States. These must be reported or they essentially face 50% penalties each year.
- Additionally, this year the IRS and Congress have become very concerned about crypto-currency (like Bitcoin) and you must be certain to report any of these transactions; there is even a new question on every tax return asking about it.
- While we are talking about it, remind yourself that your Social Security benefit is based on your highest 35 years of earnings, so taking some time away from the workforce, or aggressively writing off business expenses can really have a long-term negative effect on retirement.
- Because state tax deductions and credits are often totally different than Federal items, we want to remind you to please completely fill out any organizer we provide for your return.

PRIVACY POLICY

Dear Valued Client:

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and the related Federal Trade Commission (FTC) regulations contain restrictions on the disclosure of personal financial information of certain individual clients and require the distribution of privacy notices to clients. At Koontz, Blasquez & Associates, P.C., as a provider of personal financial services, we are required by law to inform our clients of our policies regarding privacy of client information. Koontz, Blasquez & Associates, P.C. has been and continues to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

Types of Nonpublic Personal Information We Collect

We collect nonpublic personal information about you that is provided to us by you or obtained by us with your authorization.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information

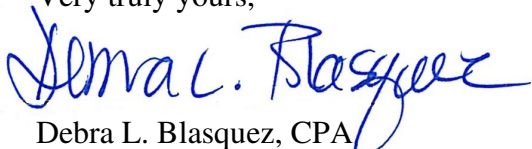

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees and, in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

Protecting the Confidentiality and Security of Current and Former Clients' Information

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs, and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please call if you have any questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.

Very truly yours,

ENGAGEMENT LETTER

Dear Client:

Thank you for choosing Koontz, Blasquez & Associates, P.C. This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your 2019 federal and necessary state income tax returns from information that you will furnish us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information. It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks, and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

We will perform accounting services only as needed to prepare your tax returns. Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist.

We will use our professional judgment in preparing your returns. Whenever we are aware that a possibly applicable tax law is unclear or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities (e.g., tax agencies and courts), we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your returns. We will adopt whatever position you request on your returns, so long as it is consistent with the codes, regulations, and interpretations that have been promulgated. When possible, we will resolve questions involving application of tax rules in your favor if there is reasonable justification for doing so. If the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing agency should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. We assume no liability for such additional penalties, interest, or assessments.

Our fee for these services will be based upon the amount of time required at standard billing rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation. Unpaid balances 30 days or more past due are subject to a late payment penalty charge of 2% per month.

The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. If you would like information on the amount or the circumstances of these penalties, please contact us. Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

During the course of the engagement, we may communicate with you via fax or email, and you should be aware that communication in those mediums contains a risk of misdirected or intercepted information.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office. We appreciate this opportunity to work with you.

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. The IRS has implemented an electronic filing mandate requiring certain preparers, including this firm, to file all returns that they prepare electronically. Some states also require certain preparers to electronically file state returns prepared. The IRS and some states allow taxpayers to elect not to file their returns electronically.

Do not electronically file the federal return

Do not electronically file the state return(s)

Note: The IRS and some states that require returns to be electronically filed also impose fees and/or penalties for failure to do so. If you checked either of the boxes above, you may be required to sign an "opt-out" form before we can release your returns. As a follow-up we will contact you to discuss these requirements and your ability to "opt-out" of electronic filing.

The IRS requires, and many states allow, the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) in lieu of mailing a signature document when electronically filing.
